

Dear Parents,

Ace My PSLE Camp 11

We will like to invite your child to join us for our annual 3-day PSLE Camp, to be held from 30 Nov to 2 Dec 2011. Our camp aims to help your child develop and adopt good study habits to help them to ace their PSLE in 2012.

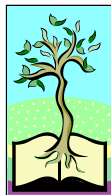

At the end of the camp, Learners will learn how to:

Some of the activities include:

- using "4 time-quadrants" to identify priorities
- planning their own timetable and revision schedules
- learning to juggle and relating the learning process to their studies
- goal-setting
- hands-on activities (both individual and group)

On the last day of the camp, there will also be a sharing session for parents whereby we share with you what your child has learnt in the 3 days and how you can guide them.
